

Longwood Dining Services Policies

1. Access to the Dining Hall is only through a meal swipe or payment for a meal at the cashier station. No one is allowed to enter the dining hall without a form of payment.
2. Meals are not transferable. Meal plans are assigned to a student's Longwood ID and are for that specific student's use. You may treat friends and guests using your Guest Meals or your Bonus Dollars which come with your Meal Plan.
3. Students must present their Longwood ID cards when using their Meal Plans.
4. The Dining Hall is an all-you-care-to-eat facility and does not allow for take-out. No food, silverware, or dishes (plates, cups, bowls, glasses) may be removed from Dorrill Dining Hall.
5. Students are allowed to fill their own personal 22 oz or smaller container with a beverage only and take it to go. No 32-oz or half-gallon containers are allowed. It is a violation of the Honor Code to remove any items other than the specific items listed above.
6. Students on the meals-per-week meal plans are allowed one meal card swipe per meal period in the Dorrill Dining Hall. If you wish to eat a second time during a meal period, you can use your Bonus Dollars or guest meals.
7. Students with the Unlimited Plan are allowed unlimited access to the Dining Hall and can swipe their cards as often as they wish for meals in the Dorrill Dining Hall.
8. Students on the Block Plan can swipe their card more than once during a meal period for meals in the Dorrill Dining Hall.
9. Students are allowed only one meal card swipe per meal period in the Outta Here. This policy applies to all meal plans.
10. Unlimited Meal Plans can only use one meal swipe per meal period if the meal they choose is from Outta Here.
11. If you swipe your card in Outta Here, you cannot use a swipe in Dorrill Dining Hall during the same meal period. If you swipe your card in Dorrill Dining Hall, you cannot use a swipe in Outta Here during the same meal period

Updated November 2010

